

WALL ST. STOCK REPORTS.

Prices Continue to Advance in the Share Market.

Jay Gould to Abandon the Union Pacific Directory.

New England Scores a Rise of Three Points—Quotations.

The bulls played and have with the shorts today. They put in heavy buying orders at the start and followed them up with others whenever the bears made demonstrations against New England. Richmond Terminal and Reading, which happen to be most vulnerable to attack at the moment.

Strangely enough the coals were the leaders in the upward movement. Reading was the only laggard, but finally even that stock could not resist the general upward turn, and it sold at 10 1/2, after having been at 10 1/4.

It is stated that the Gould interest will retire from the Union Pacific directory at the coming election, the transfer books for which closed today. The management will probably pass into the hands of Dr. J. C. Morgan & Co., who represent the Union Pacific, and the Gould interest will be carried out of the company. The annual report of the Norfolk & Western.

The directors recommended the issue of 100,000 shares of preferred stock, of which not over $5,000,000 will be issued in the current year. No action has yet been taken towards securing the company stock, as authorized by the stockholders, but the management is sure that it should be done.

It is learned that the management of John E. Borah, Jr., of the Central line of members is solely in the interest of C. F. Huntington Southern Railway, and that the management of the Central line of members is solely in the interest of C. F. Huntington Southern Railway, and that the management of the Central line of members is solely in the interest of C. F. Huntington Southern Railway.

The stock market continued on its upward course this afternoon, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant. The Union Pacific was the leader, and the bulls were in the ascendant.

DYNAMITE IN ANGERS.

Bomb Explodes in the Police Office, One Policeman Injured.

Absolutely No Clue to the Men Who Worked the Outrage.

Two More Anarchist Suspects May Be Discharged at Paris.

PARIS, April 6.—Notwithstanding the extra precautions to prevent further repetitions of dynamite explosions, the Anarchists do not seem to find much trouble in pursuing their nefarious work wherever they are so disposed.

The latest scene of their activity is Angers, capital of the Department of Maine-et-Loire. The city is the seat of numerous industries and the Anarchists' theories and many supporters among the working classes.

The police here, as elsewhere in France, have been instructed to search out and arrest everyone who is believed to be implicated in any attempt to use dynamite unlawfully, and they have carried out their orders to the letter. But in searching the city and watching suspicious characters they appear to have neglected proper precautions to guard against an explosion at their own headquarters.

Last night or at an early hour this morning a dynamite bomb was quietly placed upon a window sill of the police depot, the time lighted, and the Anarchists withdrew.

Everything was quiet in the police depot and the vicinity, when suddenly there was a flash and a tremendous roar that caused momentary consternation in the neighborhood.

The police, who were standing in the doorway of the depot, were thrown back by the explosion, and the depot itself was quite badly damaged. One policeman in the building was injured.

There is absolutely no clue to the perpetrators of the outrage.

Some comment has been made in Paris upon the release yesterday of Mathieu, who was arrested on the charge of being an accomplice of Ravachol. The police thought in every way to secure evidence connecting him with one or all of the explosions to which Ravachol was confessed that he was the author, but failed.

The evidence thus far obtained by the authorities fails to connect Mathieu with Ravachol, who are also in custody on suspicion of complicity in the outrages, and it is expected that they, too, will shortly be released.

Another Assault in an English Railway Car Compartment.

LONDON, April 6.—A violent assault in a compartment of an attached train en route for Huddersfield, a town of Denbighshire, Wales, this morning, was started by hearing piercing shrieks coming from the rear of the car. Upon looking out they saw a girl about thirteen years old standing upon the footboard, clutching in her arms her sister, who was lying on the ground.

The train was running at a good rate of speed, and it appeared as though she would be thrown to the ground at any moment. With great difficulty and at great risk she made her way along the footboard to the next compartment, where she was taken in.

She was taken in by a man who was in a terrible state of excitement. She was quoted as far as possible, and then she explained that she and an unknown man were the sole occupants of the compartment who had left. The man had engaged her in conversation and finally had made improper proposals to her.

She rejected his advances, whereupon he had seized her and, despite her resistance and her cries for help, which were drowned by the rumbling of the train, had brutally assaulted her. When she escaped from his grasp, she jumped out on the footboard and shrieked for help.

The man became alarmed, and fearing arrest, too, got out on the footboard and, standing high for a moment, jumped on the train. No trace of him has been found.

Official Report of the Warrant for William Henry Hurst.

LONDON, April 6.—A warrant just made by Sir Augustus Stephenson confirms the statement that a warrant had been issued for the arrest of William Henry Hurst on a charge of perjury in the suit for breach of promise of marriage brought against him by Miss Gertrude Kille, otherwise known as "Gertie Kille," who was defended and afterwards refused a new trial.

Sir Augustus said he delayed action until he had enough evidence in support of that given by Miss Evelyn, in contradiction of Hurst's testimony, to enable him to procure a warrant for the latter's arrest on the charge of perjury.

Every precaution was taken to conceal the fact that inquiries were being made, but it appears that it was impossible to prevent Hurst from being advised that he was likely to be arrested. Hurst fled from England and was detained in the United States, where he denied that there was any warrant for him. The warrant was cable to the United States, but Hurst was again warned and fled to Mexico, thus escaping arrest.

Bride of 83, Groom of 73 at a Notable English Wedding.

LONDON, April 6.—Edward Watkins and Mrs. Ingram, widow of the proprietor of the Illustrated London News, were married this morning at St. George's church, Dover Square. The wife is eighty-three years old and the bridegroom seventy-seven.

Sir Edward is one of the most powerful railway magnates in Great Britain and his bride is immensely wealthy. Sir Edward has a son who is married to a daughter of his bride.

Mrs. Montagu Resigned to Her Lot as a Convict for a Year.

DUBLIN, April 6.—Mrs. Annie Margaret Montagu, who on Monday was sentenced at the Assizes here to one year's imprisonment at hard labor for killing her young daughter Helen, is resigned to her punishment. She adopted the dress and diet of a convict without a murmur.

Had Yellow Fever on Board.

The schooner Tyre was held at quarantine today because her commander, Capt. Corkum, died of yellow fever during the voyage. Two of the crew were also taken sick of yellow fever.

Ravogli Sisters Fall.

Mrs. Ravogli, with her daughters, Misses. Guido and Nella Ravogli, fell for Liverpool today on the steamship city of Paris. They are going to London, where they have been engaged by Sir Augustus Harris for a season of grand opera until next August.

GEN. WISE MAY BE CALLED OUT

Col. Skinner Demands an Apology for His Granddaughter.

The General's Wife Alleged to Have Defamed Miss Bella Greene.

Members of the fashionable set of Southerners in New York City are agitated over a feud which has arisen between two of its most prominent and representative families in connection with the series of dances given by the circle during the past season at the Mendocino Assembly Rooms.

Mrs. John S. Wise, wife of the prominent Virginia lawyer now in this city, was the organizer of these dances, and associated with her were Mrs. Hugh Gordon, Mrs. Roger A. Pryor, Mrs. C. C. Smith and others.

The story is that Miss Isabelle Greene, well known in Richmond society, who has been visiting in New York this winter with some Southern friends, was not invited to these dances on account of some objections made by certain subscribers to the entertainment, despite the fact that several of her friends made personal requests in her behalf to the committee in charge of these social affairs.

This caused great offense to the young lady's family and friends, and her grandfather, Col. W. F. Skinner, once an attaché of the American Legation in Paris, at the time of Louis Philippe, came on to New York to look after his granddaughter's interests and endeavor to straighten out matters.

Col. Skinner believed that he had good reason to hold Mrs. Wise responsible for the slight which had been offered to his granddaughter, and he endeavored to investigate certain remarks she was said to have made at one of the committee meetings, where the question of extending to Miss Greene an invitation to the dances referred to came up.

He called upon Mrs. Wise at his law office, and she, stating his grievances, demanded that Mrs. Wise should make apology for the slur which it was alleged she had cast upon his granddaughter.

Mrs. Wise is an old friend of Col. Skinner, and she has been a social acquaintance of his for many years. She was said to have been a member of the dancing class, and she was the chairman of the committee which had stonily refused to extend an invitation to Miss Greene. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

It was stated that the members of her committee that she (Miss Greene) was regarded as no better than the old colonel. In the letter, which has been made public, Mrs. Wise said that the objection to extending an invitation to Miss Greene was not a personal one, but was based upon the fact that she was not a member of the dancing class, and she was not a member of the committee.

B. Altman & Co.

are showing in their

Infants' Department,

Novelties in French Cloaks, Coats, Long and Short Dresses.

Also. A great variety of Gingham Dresses, Caps, Hats, &c., at REDUCED PRICES.

And TO-MORROW, THURSDAY, April 7, offer

CHILDREN'S NAINSOOK DRESSES

with hemstitching, Lace or Embroidery, at $2.48 each; value $5.00 and $6.00.

18th St., 19th St. and Sixth Ave.

(18th St. Station Elevated Road.)

COL. JAMES CROSS-EXAMINED

Efforts to Show that He Has No Claim Against J. H. Work.

Col. E. C. James, who is suing Lawyer J. Henry Work in Part IV. of the Supreme Court for $10,000, the balance he claims as due him on cash investments in certain contracts negotiated by Work and Ward or Work, W. Warner and himself, resumed his seat on the witness stand this morning.

The cross-examination of the plaintiff was conducted by Adolph Pinckoff, as ex-judge Noah Davis, one of Mr. Work's attorneys, was too ill to direct the interrogatories. The defense endeavored to prove that Col. James was not a partner in the firm of Grant & Ward, and that he was not a partner in the firm of Grant & Ward.

Witness was asked if he had not seen a published statement, after the failure of the Marine Bank, showing that Work and Warner had received 25 per cent. of their investment. Col. James said he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward.

Lawyer Choate, for the plaintiff, objected to the introduction of any statement from Ferdinand Ward and Justice Patterson sustained the objection.

Col. James testified that his suspicions that the profits arising from the cash investments in the contracts were not properly accounted to him, were not aroused until after and after he had previously read various newspaper articles reflecting on Work and Warner.

The witnesses testified that at the time of the published articles he went to Mr. Work, who said that he could vindicate himself from all charges of fraud, and that he would do so. Col. James said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward.

Col. James said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward. He said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward.

Col. James said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward. He said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward.

Col. James said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward. He said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward.

Col. James said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward. He said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward.

Col. James said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward. He said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward.

Col. James said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward. He said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward.

Col. James said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward. He said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward.

Col. James said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward. He said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward.

Col. James said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward. He said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward.

Col. James said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward. He said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward.

Col. James said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward. He said that he had seen a schedule published, which had been given out by Ferdinand Ward.

22d Street Le Bonfleur Bros

Summer Hosiery

AND UNDERWEAR.

300 dozen Ladies' Fast Black "Rock Dye" Lisle Thread Hose, plain or Richelieu Ribbed; also assorted colors and boot patterns, regular 50c quality, now

500 dozen Ladies' Fast Black "Rock Dye" fine cotton Hose, spliced heels, plain or ribbed, regular 30c quality

100 dozen Men's fast Black "Rock Dye" fine cotton Half Hose, high-spliced heels and double soles, plain or ribbed, 50c quality

3 cases Men's C. G. French Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers (shirts with long or half sleeves), 85c quality

50 dozen Ladies' Swiss ribbed Silk Vests, low necks, in cream, pink, sky, and black, reduced from 98c each to

48, 50 & 52 W. 23d St.

37, 39, 41, 43 & 45 W. 22d St.

HAMMERSTEIN UNDER FIRE.

Sharp Retorts to Fire Chief Bonner's Counsel.

Manager Oscar Hammerstein resumed the witness stand in the Supreme Court this morning in the trial before Justice Beach and a jury of eight against him in which Fire Chief Bonner and Superintendent of Buildings Brady seek to recover for slander.

The suit arose out of a difficulty between Mr. Hammerstein and the officials named over day in issuing the certificates necessary for the opening of the Columbus Theatre on the one hundred and Twenty-ninth street, when the manager is said to have called the officials "blackmailers" and "liars."

Lawyer Wolman cross-examined Mr. Hammerstein.

The manager was asked if he intended to injure Mr. Bonner or Mr. Brady, and replied that he did not.

"Why didn't you retract your words when you saw them in the papers the next day?" The question was asked.

"I don't say that you showed Capt. Bonner what you could do, and now you show Bonner."

"No, sir," replied the witness.

"That's a lie," thundered Hammerstein.

"Oh, I am a liar, now, sir," replied the witness.

Mr. Hammerstein testified that he once edited a tobacco trade journal, but sold it to a tobacco dealer.

"Did you publish yourself as a manufacturer of ballads, sonnets and atrocious lies?"

"I did," humbly.

"How many times have you been arrested?"

"One time," replied the witness.

"How many times have you been in Ludlow's debt?"

"I have been in Ludlow's debt for a long time," replied the witness.

Mr. Hammerstein said he believed he could not get his license because he had refused to pay a bribe of $500 to a police officer.

Mr. Hammerstein said he believed he could not get his